TouchPoint Medical, Inc. Launches workFLO™ Point-of-Care Solution

Expanded product line delivers elegant simplicity for today's fast-paced healthcare environment

OLDSMAR, Fla. – June 26, 2019 – TouchPoint Medical, Inc. announced today that it has expanded its point-of-care solutions with the workFLO™ series. The new workFLO™ product line is designed to help deliver better patient experiences through its streamlined and easy-to-manuever design.

workFLO™ features a series of workstations and device stands that are designed to make delivery of care more efficient by providing a solution that is easy for them to use even during a busy shift. The product line offers durable and intuitive workstations that provide easy maneuverability at roughly half the weight of traditional powered carts. The series features a stable base design with tracking casters, an array of accessories and multiple technology mounting options from all-in-one devices (AIOs) to small tablets.

“A clinician’s comfort is a key ingredient in delivering a high level of patient care,” said Bradley Carlson, product manager of point-of-care solutions. “With the expansion of our point-of-care mobile workstation offering, TouchPoint Medical is providing our customers with a greater breadth of solutions that meet their specific clinical and IT mobility requirements.”
