TouchPoint, Inc. Acquires ICW-USA

Effective today, TouchPoint, Inc., the parent company of TouchPoint Medical, has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire ICWUSA.com, Inc., (ICW). Founded in 1998 and headquartered in Medford, Oregon, ICW is a leader in manufacturing customized medical arms and wall mounting systems.

ICW will join TouchPoint's Healthcare platform, which includes the TouchPoint Medical and ITD businesses. TouchPoint Healthcare focuses on developing customer driven solutions to securely mobilize medical technology and manage medication dispensing in a way that creates safer and more efficient healthcare environments.

ICW's mounts and workstations are designed, engineered and manufactured in their Medford, Oregon facility. They serve a variety of end markets including hospital, dental, veterinary, industrial, and institutional settings. As the market leader, they have earned an outstanding reputation for quality, innovation, customer service and loyalty. Additional information on ICW can be found on their website at www.icwusa.com

"We have worked together with ICW for nearly fifteen years and are excited to add the ICW technology, expertise and solutions to our TouchPoint Healthcare platform, as this expanded offering further enhances our ability to grow and create value for our customers and channel partners," said Brian McNeill, Chairman, President & CEO of TouchPoint, Inc. "ICW and TouchPoint Healthcare are an ideal fit, providing one another with highly complementary products, talent, services and channels to market."
